Dry Creek Home in Turkey Creek

This affordable home has been well maintained and has great curb appeal. The interior has a great floor plan. As you enter the foyer you notice the vaulted ceilings, vent-less fireplace, and the beautiful faux-wood linoleum floors. Large glass doors open from the dining room to the large screened back porch letting in lots of light.

The kitchen is separate from the living room. It has wood cabinets and a breakfast nook with a bay window. Recent updates include a new microwave and dishwasher, and the frig is only 2 yrs old.

The master bedroom is large with plenty of wall space for furniture. The master bath has a new shower enclosure with beautiful sliding glass doors. Storage isn't a problem, there is a large walk-in closet and a few linen closets nearby.

You will love the spacious back yard. Enjoy the large screened porch that would be a great place to host a cook out with friends.
